

Printing at McClure Publishing, Inc.

We print our books at various locations globally and distribute them in the US, UK, EU, Australia, and Canada.

You can buy our books directly from our website at <https://McClurePublishing.com>. Please use our logo and your ISBN (on the barcode) when you promote your book.

You get higher royalties when you sell your books on our website. Our distribution partners take 40 to 55% of the retail price.

Our distribution partners include Amazon, Barnes and Noble, Books-a-Million, Walmart, Alibris, Waterstones, Booktopia, eBay, Better World Books, Wordery, Thiftbooks, and other bookstores. Some books are also available at Target.

If books are returned, you pay for the returned books and the shipping costs. We ship the books to you for resale.

All our books are POD (Print on Demand) and are available in bookstores. You can check the availability of your book on online platforms. Some stores offer a 90-day shelf life.

Prices differ by country.
